REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest apparatus or methods for manufacturing glass base material as claimed with the incorporation or use of a temperature control unit consisting essentially of a temperature control circuit, at least one heat source and at least one temperature sensor and a pressure control unit consisting essentially of at least one carrier gas control valve, at least one carrier gas supply unit, a pressure control circuit and at least one pressure sensor as claimed. The closest prior art is in McMenamin (previously cited) which disclosed a system using a "Vapor Mass Flow Controller" to control pressures along with a temperature controller to control temperatures, both controllers on a common control circuit. (see below)

Art Unit: 1731

2. The question of what could be encompassed in the scope of applicant's "consisting essentially of" terminology has been answered by applicant's recently submitted arguments. It would not have been obvious to locate pressure control elements from the pressure control unit within the temperature control unit and vice versa.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
